Bali vs Dubai vs Thailand vs Vietnam

What you own, what $300,000 buys, the yield and the tax. Four markets, one honest table.

THE SNAPSHOT

Four markets at a glance

BALI
You own	Lease, Hak Pakai, PT PMA
$300k buys	3–4 bed villa + pool
Net yield, well run	7–9%

DUBAI
You own	Freehold, registered
$300k buys	1–2 bed apartment
Tax on rent	None in Dubai

THAILAND
You own	Condo freehold (49% quota)
Villa with land	30-yr registered lease

VIETNAM
You own	Apartment, ~50 years
Best for	Growth, low yield

BALI VS DUBAI

Ownership vs yield

Dubai wins

Freehold in your own name. No tax on rental income. Easy to sell, with public sale prices.

Bali wins

Higher net yield. Real land scarcity. A whole villa you actually use.

Same $300,000: a 1–2 bedroom apartment in Dubai with service charges, or a 3–4 bedroom villa with a pool in Bali, on a 25–30 year lease.

Selling above $750,000 in Bali commonly takes 12 to 24 months. Dubai is far more liquid.

Registered vs longer

1. Thailand: condo freehold
   In your own name, within the building's 49% foreign quota.
2. Thailand: a registered lease
   30 years, on the title deed. Structurally stronger than an Indonesian lease.
3. Bali: longer terms in practice
   50 or 80 years through agreed extensions is common.
4. Bali: higher yields
   Villa letting earns more, with more work and more seasonality.
5. Both: nominees are illegal
   Thailand prosecutes them. In Indonesia they're void.

BALI VS VIETNAM

Growth vs income

Vietnam

Apartments in approved projects, about 50 years, renewable on approval. A growing economy, low yields.

Bali

Villas you can use and rent out. Higher yields, but a weaker ownership position.

In Vietnam the ownership certificate (the "pink book") can be delayed for years on some projects. Paid up, but nothing registered.

BALI'S STRONGEST ARGUMENT

They can't make more Bali.

~15 m	Height limit. No towers, so supply stays low.
~7M	Foreign arrivals in 2025, up almost 10%.
24→32M	Airport capacity expanding, passengers a year.

Coastal land is fixed and tourism zoning is scarce. That is the core of the case for Bali.

SO WHICH ONE?

Pick by what matters to you

IF YOU WANT	LOOK AT
Ownership in your own name	Dubai
No tax on rent	Dubai
Easy, fast resale	Dubai
A freehold condo in Asia	Thailand
Growth over income	Vietnam
Higher net income	Bali
A home you'll actually use	Bali

Your home country may tax worldwide income wherever the property sits.

WHAT I DO FOR YOU

You don't have to do this alone.

If Bali fits your plan, I'll show you where it makes sense, find the land or property and check every document.

1. I find the land
   In the area and budget that fit your plan, with the zoning checked first.
2. I find the right property or project
   Built, off-plan or land to build on. I look at all of them, so you see the honest options.
3. I check everything before you pay
   Certificate, zoning, permits, the lease clauses and the seller.
4. I stay with you to the notary
   Questions answered straight, in plain words, until the keys are yours.
